Grammarly is a learning tool that helps to develop writing skills, reinforce proper revision habits and prevent plagiarism

400+ Points of Grammar Checking

Grammarly checks for more than 400 common grammar, spelling, punctuation and style errors, saving time for students and faculty.

Built-In Plagiarism Checker

To support your research, every Grammarly EDU license comes with a plagiarism check. In addition to over 16 billion web pages, it scans proprietary databases of scholarly journals.

LMS Integration

Grammarly integrates directly with your browser, working seamlessly with Canvas, Blackboard, D2L and many other platforms.

Sign Up

By signing up, you agree to the Terms and Conditions and Privacy Policy. You also agree to receive product-related emails from Grammarly from which you can unsubscribe at any time.

You will receive a confirmation email with an activation link. Once you have confirmed your subscription, you will be instantly redirected to the Grammarly Editor.

Please check your email.

Please follow the confirmation link we have sent to email@your.domain.

Didn't get the link? Resend email.

You may also receive a confirmation email sent by your institution's admin, and in this case, you would only need to accept it and follow the instructions in the email.

Grammarly Dashboard

This is where you can manage your account settings and documents. Here you can upload new texts, delete old ones, and much more (you're welcome to explore all the options!).

You can start working on a new document by clicking the New button. If you want to check an existing document on your computer, click Upload.

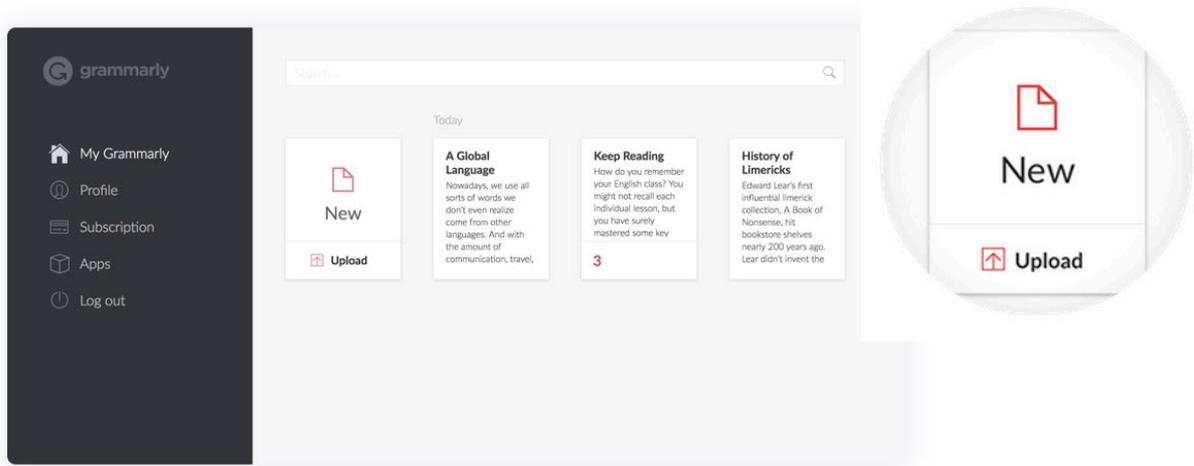

You can also upload another document for checking after you've started editing. Simply use these options.
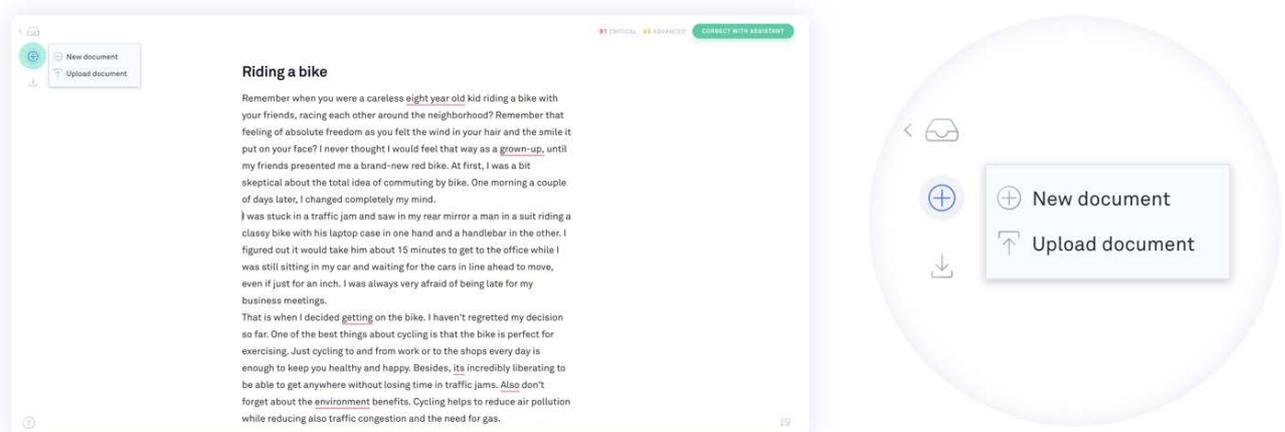

EditingText

Grammarly automatically checks everything you type, making it easy to spot and fix errors quickly. When your document is being checked, a notification appears in the status bar at the bottom of the page. You can keep typing, and Grammarly will continue checking.
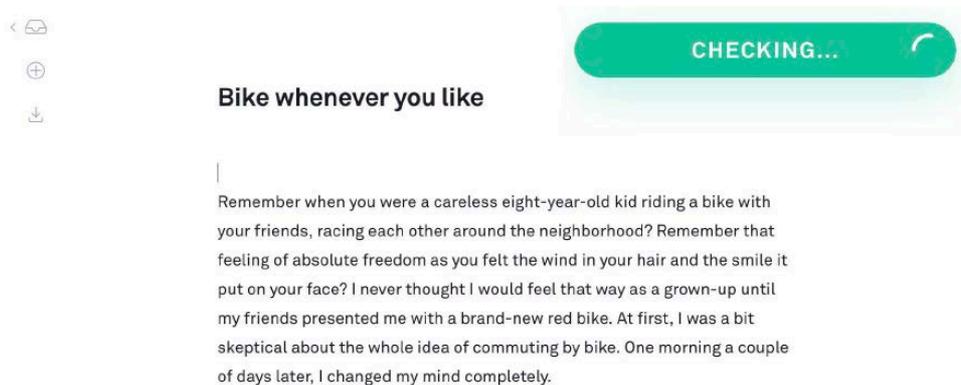

You can tell if there's a mistake in your text by the red or yellow (advanced) underlines. Click on any underlined word to see Grammarly's suggestions.

To accept a correction, simply click on it:
If you'd like to ignore a suggestion, simply click the trash can icon to dismiss it.

If a suggestion is incorrect or you'd like to report it for any reason, click the flag icon and choose your preferred option to proceed.

To see a detailed explanation about a suggestion, click the three dots at the bottom of the alert.

Adjusting Your Settings

If you want to achieve a specific goal with your text, Grammarly's here to help! Simply select your preferred goals in the menu.

You can also adjust checking to a particular document type, just select your preferred domain from the list.

In Preferences, you can toggle the word count, font size and auto-jump to the next alert.
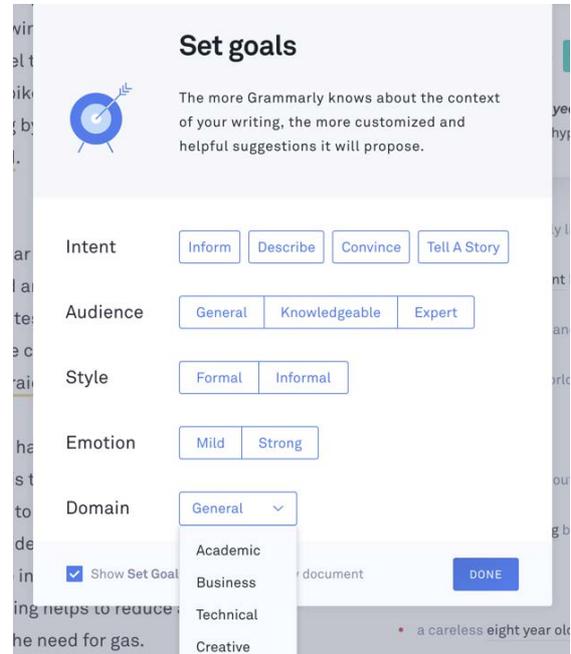

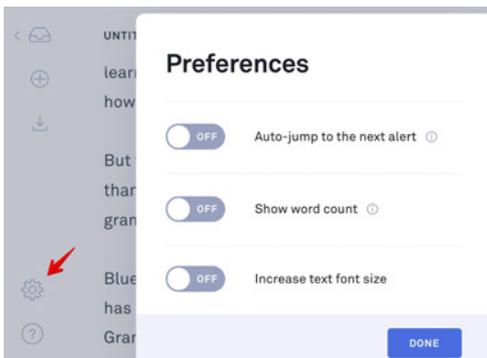

The personal Dictionary lets you keep unique words that you don't want to be flagged as misspellings.

There is a set of spelling and punctuation rules you can choose according to your language preferences.

Plagiarism Check

Grammarly crosschecks your text against over 16 billion web pages, and thousands of articles licensed by ProQuest™. It highlights plagiarized passages that have been previously published elsewhere and offers citation data to create a reference in MLA, APA and Chicago Manual of Style (Turabian).

Bike whenever you like

Remember when you were a careless eight-year-old kid riding a bike with your friends, racing each other around the neighborhood? Remember that feeling of absolute freedom as you felt the wind in your hair and the smile it put on your face? I never thought I would feel that way as a grown-up until my friends presented me with a brand-new red bike. At first, I was a bit skeptical about the whole idea of commuting by bike. One morning a couple of days later, I changed my mind completely.

I was stuck in a traffic jam and saw in my rear mirror a man in a suit riding a classy bike with his laptop case in one hand and a handlebar in the other. I figured out it would take him about 15 minutes to get to the office while I
